

Job 16-17, Lesson 11

"Though He slay me, I will hope in Him. Nevertheless I will argue my ways before Him. (Job 13:15)

Job's Response To Eliphaz

I. Job's Friends Are Sorry Comforters, 16:1-5

1. What are Job's friends doing that make them sorry comforters?
2. How does Job want them to comfort him?

II. Job Complains To God About His Trials, 16:5-17:16

1. List at least ten trials that have come upon Job, according to this section:

2. Why does Job want his blood to remain visible and cry remain audible (16:18)?

3. Who does Job believe can vindicate him in his conflict with God (19-21)?

4. Who else is in trouble with God, according to Job (17:2-5)?

5. What will appall the upright, according to Job (17:8)?

6. What is Job's remaining hope (17:11-16)?

 What would you say to Job at the end of this complaint (chapters 16-17)?