
Job 3, Lesson 3

"Though He slay me, I will hope in Him. Nevertheless I will argue my ways before Him. (Job 13:15)

I. Job's Pain

What is the target of Job's pain throughout this chapter?

II. Knowledge Questions

1. List Job's wishes for the day of his birth.

2. List Job's "why" questions.

3. How does Job view death in this chapter? How does he view the afterlife?

III. Application Questions

1. Is it wrong to wish we were never born?

2. Is Job right about the benefits of death?

3. Answer Job's question from 3:20-23.